What to See at The Armory Show

Heather Guertin at JDJ

Across the board, the solo artist presentations are some of the best booths at The Armory Show this year. One of the special highlights is JDJ's booth with new works by Heather Guertin. This series of oil paintings on canvas highlights the ways in which the artist reflects on drawings, photographs, and illustrations found in discarded books. Rather than directly recreate the visual compositions she happens upon, the paintings are abstracted and reconfigured through the artist's singular approach to artmaking. The effect is mesmerizing and technically stunning. One could spend endless time studying each work, but seeing this group of paintings together is truly spectacular.
